Subject: I don't think it is an exaggeration at all... but...

This place is used by cheap run of the mill dirt poor and backwards intelligence people, the Andrew brush hypnotizing neuron surgeons probably gaining the benefits of these peoples work, I think they attempt to read my thoughts using helpless victims, I can hear sounds of torture from time to time of people not able to or willing to participate in the monitoring of my thoughts, it is coming from the bathroom area of the apartment bellow me, but it could be coming from two other close apartments on the second floor... These sounds could also be that the victim being tortured is used as a host for out of body spirits, and after they leave the victims body another spirit comes into it, then that spirits leaves, seems to me the victim is only tortured if the original persons spirit reenters its own body or tries to fight off the spirit possessions or the controllers of these experiments, then they torture the unfortunate person again driving their soul out to make room for more spirits that could temporarily possess the victims body and relay whatever information exchange that takes place... Seems to me these kinds of activities have been going on here since august 2006... The latest twist is the constant draining of my soul with energy fields, maybe this is how they are seeding the victim to better be able to focus on my thoughts and read them or training the victim to control or influence my actions... Strange place around here...
